Dear Leader's Words for April

Greetings Dear Members,

Once again the Laybackers Pointscored with the waves! Holy moly, I thought our March PS was a cracker, but our last one took it to the next level... I remember looking out on it at around 10 with Aiden and both of us gobsmacked at how perfect it looked... decent size, juice, and brushed gently by the offshore! If you weren't there you reeeeeeeeeeeely missed it, as the saying goes..

SOME HIGHLIGHTS FOR ME (from Dave's Pics...)

There was some very high class surfing that went down in some of the heats, early windy faces making it challenging, and later the wind just brushed all the worry wrinkles out of the faces..

The firsts (naturally) was really something. Not to take away from the others in that heat, but watching Fitzzy and Aiden take these quality waves on in their own style was fantastic - two very different approaches: Aiden in his polished repertoire of moves that he has up his sleeve for any moment on the wave, smooth and stylish, with those echos of old school roots....

And Fitzzy, RTL'ing (for the younger folk that means 'Rip Tear and Lacerate' - once said by either Mark Warren or Bugs in the mid 70s) on that HP longboard of his.

These two different approaches were very challenging to judge - we were very focused and making sure we could score all the moves, even though they came from different ends of the longboard style. It was a great contest to watch, in the end Fitzzy needed a couple more of the big ones, but he didn't get them - that's Comp surfing for you!

Killer and Scotty and their versions of high performance longboard re - entries:

Nick Ferderer back in the club and pushing the competition performance up as always:

Lara (in the same heat as Aiden, with Uncle Scotty looking after Alby) just killing it as she always does:

Mercurial style meister Lachy - always worth watching, often for out there moves that don't always come off, put on his stylish best:

Groms again shined strongly in these conditions - here's a couple with Ruby and Rosie - some great moves and frothing enthusiasm from the others too!

Big committed move by Arne -

And while we are on the subject of Groms - check this silky smooth bottom turn by The Grom himself - Napper on an Old Mal...

Donna sliding and managing those bumps..

And Andrew W on his way to the firsts! Go Andrew!

Too many more to list, check out the fantastic portfolio of shots that follow in the Newsletter. If you're anything like me, after scrolling through them, you may be bummed that there isn't one of you that captured that magical move you are sure you did...but just wasn't captured.. The trick is to keep at it and increase your consistency so that Dave has more opportunities to capture you, then you may see that move immortalised! But did it really happen?! I find the moves I PLAN to do are often much better than the ones I actually do...

On that note, we are very lucky to be able to hold the Winter Classic - 30th Anniversary this year! You have seen the entry, get one in if you want to have a crack. I have attended all of them since about 2007 and we have been lucky with good and often great surf every time. We start under torchlight before dawn, set up for the sun to rise at 7am and the first heat to hit it! This year we hope to make it really special so please enter, or if not help out - its a fantastic event, one of the big comps of the east coast.

So this Sunday we are on again, conditions look very promising too.. I am most likely not attending however, as my number came up and I copped a dose of that so called 'spicy cough', so although I will be out of iso, I may not be up to par enough to attend, so Damo and Kris and the rest of the committee will be the ring masters for the day.

A couple of notes for Sunday:

- Winter Classic 30th Anniversary Year - entry forms now out for all comers

- 30TH ANNIVERSARY - we are booked for the 29th October at the Wollongong Golf Club - venue, music, food and some drinks as part of the tickets that will be coming your way soon!

- LAKE TABOURIE WEEKEND SURF FEST! Finalising the numbers for 13 to 15 May

- BILLY'S BOARD RAFFLE DRAWN ON SUNDAY!! Dont miss it!

See you in the Green Room (not this Sunday for me)

Hoo Roo
Andy
